

TinkRworks had the wonderful opportunity to work with SIS students across multiple sites on the topic of robotics

Children were very eager to code robots at each of the schools we attended, with several trying it out for themselves

